The Price of a Home

It will take just so much money to buy you a home, of course. Perhaps you've fancied that it is beyond your means. Don't make up your mind to that, definitely, until you give me a chance.

I have so many good bits of property for sale, and will make the buying very easy.

For importing women for immoral purposes, Hankichi Terayama, Muri Kurihara and Kinokuni Kurihara.

The foregoing is a description of the indictments returned against the persons named, respectively, by the Federal grand jury yesterday. All of the defendants will appear this morning to be arraigned.

THE TRIAL JURY.

When those disqualified and having valid excuses were counted out, the trial jury panel was found to be lacking in numbers. Judge Estee therefore issued a special venire in the morning, which Marshal Hendry returned in the afternoon, for eighteen additional men. As finally empaneled the trial jurors for the term are the following named:

CITY PHYSICIAN DID NOT SOLDIER

Dr. A. N. Sinclair, outside physician to the Honolulu dispensary, feels annoyed at being represented in the Bulletin virtually as having entirely neglected his duties last month. In the data furnished by Registrar Lawrence with the mortuary report, the blank for dispensary visits is unfilled for the last month. This is only because Dr. Sinclair had been delayed in making his usual report. He states the following as the record of his services in September:

Visits, 47; schools inspected, 7; vaccinations, 49; certificates granted, 238.

HONOLULU'S SANITATION

Work of City Sanitary Officer and Helpers Last Month.

Following is the report of C. H.
Tracy, City Sanitary Officer and Inspector of Cemeteries for September, read at the meeting of the Board of Health yesterday:

Four new cesspools have been located and dug.

Nine buildings have been moved or altered so as to conform to the sanitary regulations.

Two 48-hour notices were served.
One arrest and prosecution has been made. The Chinaman, Ah Chong by name, owning the tenement house on Nuuanu avenue just mauka of Vineyard street, allowed his cesspool to overflow into his neighbor's yard. He was fined $2 and costs and immediately remedied the nuisance.

My assistant and I have made 1,250 inspections during the month. This includes the inspection of all the burials and disinterments during that time.

Eleven restaurants, ten lodging houses and one hotel applied for certificates of sanitary condition to obtain licenses and all save two restaurants and one lodging house were inspected, approved and issued. These held had some minor changes to make before the premises would be satisfactory.

One lodging house whose certificate was held up last month has gone out of business. One of the three lodging house certificates held from previous months was issued. Eight hundred and ninety-one persons can lawfully be lodged in these buildings licensed.
Licensed.

During the month in the inspection of graves we found that twelve graves were opened in digging new graves.
One of these was only eight months old.

While inspecting the disinterments we took occasion to measure the depth of the graves and found them to be from 3 ft. 9 in. to 4 ft. 6 in. deep which, assuming the depth of the coffin to be 1 ft. 6 in., would leave very little earth over the box.

There has been 116 1-2 days of work done by the inspectors during the month. A large part of this was spent in collecting tin cans, posting posters, etc., in the mosquito crusade work.

PLUMBING INSPECTION.

E. G. Kerr, inspector of buildings, plumbing and house sewers, has reported the work of his office as follows, for the month of September:

Number of plumbing plans received, 54; plumbing permits issued, 54; final certificates of plumbing issued, 46; inspections of plumbing and house sewers made, 171; sewer connections made, 15.

Twelve applications to erect buildings were received and all approved.
Number of inspections of building sites made, 14.

CARTER'S WORK ON SELLING OF BONDS

portunity to discuss Hawaiian affairs. Of course there was no definite pronouncement regarding any Hawaiian questions by the President, but Mr. Carter was highly gratified at the President's continued interest in the territory and in his inquiries about different things. Mr. John Mitchell, President of the Mine Workers Union, was also a guest at luncheon and there was some talk about the admission of Chinese, a question in which Mr. Mitchell as well as Mr. Carter was interested. Further than the knowledge of having approved the issue of bonds on the recommendation of Secretary Hitchcock, the President had little knowledge in detail of them and naturally asked Mr. Carter many questions about what he had accomplished. All in all Mr. Carter has been very successful in the errands that brought him to Washington and probably will accomplish all he has come for.

There has been considerable discussion here in labor circles of late about the admission of Japanese into Hawaii, as indicated in my last letter. Since then Commissioner of Immigration Sargent has returned to town. "I noted while I was in Hawaii some of the complaints about laborers being aided to go to the islands," said he.
"Of course the case of the Porto Ricans is the one best known. The American Federation of Labor sent a man to the Philippine Islands to study labor conditions there and I suppose he is also doing a little observing on the way back while staying in Hawaii.

PLANTATION LABOR.

"The sugar plantations, as is well known, have encouraged laborers to come to Hawaii. I suppose they have encouraged the Japanese." Mr. Sargent did not indicate that he intended to take any steps to check the present immigration to the islands, although there is apparently some fear that he may attempt to do so. Mr.
William Haywood has recently been to see Mr. Sargent on the subject and has forwarded to the Planters Association a report. The day following Mr. Haywood's call at the Department of Commerce and Labor the following article, supposed to have been overheard by some one within the Department, appeared in the Washington Times:

"Some one connected with the Department of Commerce and Labor has been sending out reports to the effect that the sugar planters of Hawaii are earning a profit of 25 per cent on money invested. A local representative of the planters, Mr. William Haywood, called upon Commissioner General Sargent yesterday and had a long conference on this subject, and on labor matters relating to the islands.

"The representative of the planters said he had called to obtain information as he did not want the people of Washington to believe that any such amounts were being earned, when in reality the planters were not getting more than 3 or 4 per cent. He said he had $150,000 invested in a plantation and last year the property earned only $1,000 on his money.

"Commissioner Sargent admitted that such a report came to him personally, but up to the present time it had not been published.
He declined to say what he would do with the information in his possession.

"The information is important because for years the planters have been appealing to the immigration authorities for special facilities to get cheap labor into the islands, giving as their reason the small amount of money the plantations were earning. Naturally the Government has construed the laws most liberally in dealing with them. Now, should it be proved that the planters have been earning anything like 25 per cent a year on money invested, there is likely to be a tightening of immigration strings.

"The planters of Louisiana consider themselves extremely lucky when they earn 10 and 12 per cent on money invested on their plantations. In Porto Rico the percentage is about 15 per cent, and in Cuba, in prosperous times, 20 per cent. The lowest wages paid on these plantations is in Cuba, where 50 cents a day rules. In Louisiana the pay averages 80 cents a day. In Hawaii, because of the alleged condition of the plantations the cheapest kind of labor has been admitted, and the average is 35 cents a day. The Department of Commerce and Labor is making an investigation into the matter."

The article caused some indignation on the part of Mr. Haywood, who entered a protest regarding it, because of its unfair presentation of the subject. He had no objections to the printing of an account about his visit and conversation, provided both sides had been accurately told. However, there is no probability that Mr.
Sargent will make any move against those seeking laborers for Hawaii.

There has been some talk here this week about the federal patronage which President Roosevelt has to bestow in Hawaii next summer. It is known authoritatively that the President has given the subject no attention whatever yet, unless it be that he has in mind to appoint Secretary Carter as governor of the territory. But if he has such a plan in mind he had not indicated it in any way during Mr. Carter's visit. Naturally under the circumstances he would not.

It can also be authoritatively stated that the President has not considered the matter of judicial appointments for the islands. Any talk about Senator Quay of Pennsylvania having exacted a promise for the reappointment of Judge Little is absolutely and in every particular without foundation. Both Senator Quay and Senator Penrose say they do not know Judge Little of Hilo, and any claims that those senators from a powerful state are interfering in his behalf are simply "hot air."

The Board of General Appraisers has rendered a decision over-ruling the protest of S. Kojima, of Honolulu, as to the duty on dried fish roe packed in tins. Duty was assessed by the Collector at Honolulu at the rate of 3-4 of a cent a pound and Mr. Kojima insisted that the proper duty was 20 per cent, ad valorem as an un-enumerated manufactured article. The goods were brought into Honolulu by the City of Peking, October 10, 1900.

Mr. William E. Curtis, the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record Herald and one of the most gifted writers of the American Press, has started on a year's tour of the world, during which he will write many articles to his paper, where he is always given the first column first page. He has recently sailed for Europe but will return by the Pacific Ocean and tarry a while in Hawaii.
